

Contribution Opportunities

Conference Objective

Uniformed police officers are the 'last line' of defense in the detection of crime before it enters our communities across North America. This conference will consist of relevant training that will be beneficial in the heightening of the front line peace officers awareness skills in detecting and apprehending traveling criminals. Selected topics will also be beneficial to transportation risk and security managers to relevant trucking safety and security issues.

Target Audience

- Front Line Enforcement Officers who engage in traffic enforcement or encounter motorists.
- Industry and security officials concerned about trucking security (1.5 days only)

Gold Level - $5,000.00

- Your company logo on prominent signage
- Providing one promotional item to be distributed to delegates
- Your company logo will appear prominently in the Final Conference Program
- Plenary Session acknowledgement with logo
- Complimentary 1/2 page bilingual black and white advertisement in the Final Conference Program
- 2 Complimentary conference registration for selected member of your staff
- Preferred seating at the Awards Banquet Dinner

Silver Level - $2,500.00

- Your company logo on prominent signage
- Providing one promotional item to be distributed to delegates
- Your company logo will appear prominently in the Final Conference Program
- Plenary Session acknowledgement with logo
- Complimentary 1/4 page bilingual black and white advertisement in the Final Conference Program
- 1 Complimentary conference registration for selected member of your staff

Bronze Level - $1,000.00

- Your company logo on prominent signage during the conference and 1 refreshment break
- Plenary Session acknowledgement with logo
- Your logo will appear prominently in the Final Conference Program

Silent Auction

The Organizing Committee is inviting all conference participants, sponsors, exhibitors and other supporters to be part of a silent auction. In order to help us with this activity, you are invited to donate one or two promotional items from your organization. All items received will be auctioned during the conference. Profits from the silent auction will be put towards the costs of the professional program. For more information regarding the Silent Auction please visit the CACP website at www.cacp.ca