York Regional Police Hate Crime Conference:

Standing Against Hate and Empowering Victims

One of Canada's premier conferences on hate crime investigation

Join York Regional Police hate crime investigators as we explore current trends, best practices, victim reassurance, community impact and investigative case studies.

September 23 to 26, 2024
8 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day

Stonehaven Banquet Hall at the York Regional Police Association
63 Eric T. Smith Way,
Aurora, ON

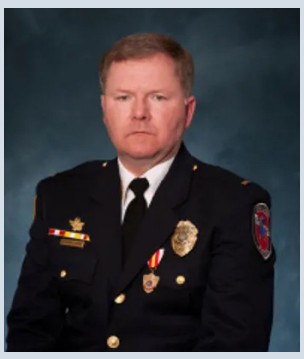

Early registration rate available now. Registration closes September 1.

Accommodations available at a special rate. Click the registration link for details.

Mohammed Hashim
Keynote Speaker

Mohammed Hashim is the Executive Director of the Canadian Race Relations Foundation.
He is currently leading a national taskforce on hate crimes with the RCMP to establish national standards, and has contributed to various legislative and policy agendas within the Government of Canada.

Ret. Lt. Brian Murphy
Oak Creek Police Dept.

Retired Lieutenant. Brian Murphy was the first officer on scene at the Wisconsin Sikh temple shooting that left six dead and three injured. Lieutenant Murphy sustained 15-gun shots during his heroic response and has since received numerous awards including the Congressional Badge of Bravery and the Public Safety Medal of Valor.

Sgt Jim MacLachlan
Case study: London Truck attack

On June 6, 2021, 20-year-old Nathaniel Veltman rammed a pickup truck into a family of Muslim Pakistani-Canadian pedestrians. Four people were killed and a fifth was wounded, making the attack the deadliest mass killing in the city's history. The lead investigator, Sergeant Jim MacLachlan, Crown Counsel and a family member of the victim will speak about the incident and the aftermath.

Register at:
yrp.ca/HateConference2024

For details, contact: Detective Zabi Aryaie at 1748@yrp.ca or Detective Constable Dinnesh Kulesekaran at 1718@yrp.ca.