COMMISSIONER OF CANADA ELECTIONS

WHO ARE WE?

The Commissioner of Canada Elections (CCE) is the independent officer whose duty is to ensure that the Canada Elections Act is complied with and enforced.

The Canada Elections Act governs the federal electoral process and includes over 600 offences.

CCE INVESTIGATIONS

Complaints or allegations of electoral wrongdoing should be referred to the CCE.

When the Commissioner has determined that a complaint falls within his mandate, she may carry out an investigation.

ASSISTANCE TO POLICE

The CCE is able to assist police of local jurisdiction with matters that could fall within her mandate, which include:

- removal, theft or damaging of campaign signs;
- placement of campaign signs; and
- candidates being denied access to multi-residence buildings or areas accessible to the public.

HOW TO REACH US

For questions about allegations of electoral wrongdoing during the election period, contact the CCE's Enforcement Directorate:

343-550-1353

between 06:00 and 24:00 EST, in both official languages.

www.cef-cce.ca @CEFCCE @cef_cce