CACP National Symposium for Missing Persons and Unidentified Remains Investigators

The Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police (CACP) in partnership with National Centre for Missing Persons and Unidentified Remains (NCMPUR) are hosting the CACP National Missing Persons and Unidentified Remains Investigators Symposium in an effort to bring together missing persons investigators and subject matter specialists from across the country to collaborate, enhance investigative skills, and share best practices.

The symposium will focus on identifying innovative and effective technologies, approaches and strategies in the search, investigation, identification, recovery, and reunification of missing persons. Participants will gain knowledge and proficiency in evidence-based, state-of-the-art, and collaborative solutions, while exploring tools and techniques from the initial response through recovery and resolution, vital to the missing and their families. The symposium will also examine the complex and multifaceted nature of missing person cases and the unique needs of diverse, vulnerable, and at-risk population groups such as 2SLGBTQI+ people, indigenous persons, and others.
