

119th CACP Annual Summit

119e Sommet annuel de l'ACCP

AUGUST 11 - 13, 2024

11 AU 13 AOÛT 2024

THE IMPACT OF GLOBAL EVENTS ON LOCAL POLICING

L'IMPACT DES ÉVÉNEMENTS INTERNATIONAUX SUR LA POLICE LOCALE

Professional Program

✕ @CACP_ACCP & #CACP2024

SUNDAY, AUGUST 11, 2024

10:00 – 16:00	Registration (Halifax Convention Centre – Pre-Function Area – Ballroom Level)
16:00 – 17:30	Opening Ceremonies (Halifax Convention Centre – B1 & B2 – Ballroom Level) CACP/Axon Equity, Diversity & Inclusion Leadership Award CACP Recognition Awards
17:30 – 18:30	Welcome Reception (Halifax Convention Centre – Ballroom Salon – Ballroom Level)

MONDAY, AUGUST 12, 2024

07:00 – 08:30	Breakfast (Halifax Convention Centre – B3 – Ballroom Level)
07:00 – 12:00	Registration (Halifax Convention Centre – Ballroom Pre-Function Area – Ballroom Level)
08:30 – 16:00	Plenary Sessions (Halifax Convention Centre – B1 & B2 – Ballroom Level)
09:30 – 16:00	Exhibit Show (Halifax Convention Centre – Convention Hall Level)
08:30 – 08:35	Opening Remarks
08:35 – 09:20	Strategic Intelligence Briefing: Enhancing Global Security Through Five Eyes Collaboration
09:20 – 10:05	Leadership in Public Order Management: Strategies for Effective Response to Demonstrations and Protests Presenters Chief Myron Demkiw, M.O.M., Toronto Police Service Directeur Denis Turcotte, M.O.M., Service de police de la Ville de Québec

	Commissioner Thomas Carrique, C.O.M., Ontario Provincial Police Moderator Chief Inspector Marie-Claude Dandenault, Service de police de la ville de Montréal Description As police leaders, navigating the complexities of public demonstrations and protests requires a nuanced understanding of crowd dynamics, legal considerations, and strategic decision-making. This session will provide valuable insights into effective leadership and operational strategies for responding to demonstrations and protests while upholding civil liberties and ensuring public safety.
10:05 – 10:15	CACP/Motorola Solutions Community Safety & Well-Being Award Presenters Directeur-général Francis Lanouette, M.O.M., Régie intermunicipale de police Thérèse-De Blainville; Co-Chair, CACP Crime Prevention and Community Safety and Well Being Committee Deputy Chief Harj Sidhu, M.O.M., Delta Police Department; Co-Chair, CACP Crime Prevention and Community Safety and Well Being Committee Michael Martin, President, Motorola Solutions Canada
10:15 – 11:00	Network Break – sponsored by NicheRMS365 (Halifax Convention Centre – Exhibit Area – Convention Hall Level)
11:00 – 11:10	CACP National Police Award for Traffic Safety and CACP Lifetime Achievement Award for Traffic Safety – sponsored by Accident Support Services International Ltd. Presenters Chief Superintendent André Phelps, Ontario Provincial Police; Co-Chair, CACP Traffic Safety Committee Inspector Chris Romanchych, Royal Canadian Mounted Police; Co-Chair, CACP Traffic Safety Committee Steve Sanderson, President, Accident Support Services; Member, CACP Traffic Safety Committee
11:10 – 12:00	Leading Through Adversity: Police Leaders’ Lived Experiences in Crisis Management Presenters Chief Don MacLean, Halifax Regional Police Service Chief Inspector Miguël Alston, Service de police de la ville de Montréal Inspector Colleen Yee, M.O.M., Vancouver Police Department

	Moderator Chief Constable Del Manak, O.O.M., Victoria Police Department Description In times of crisis, police leaders are called upon to navigate complex challenges while upholding their commitment to serving and protecting their communities. This session provides a platform for police leaders to candidly share their lived experiences and insights into managing community relationships and personal emotions during times of crisis, particularly when faced with situations that may challenge their own values. This session aims to deepen participants' understanding of the complexities of crisis management in law enforcement, while also highlighting the importance of ethical leadership, emotional intelligence, and community engagement in navigating turbulent times with integrity and compassion.
12:00 – 13:30	Lunch (Halifax Convention Centre – Exhibit Area – Convention Hall Level)
13:30 – 14:15	Exploring the AI Revolution: How AI is Transforming Society Presenters Bill Syrros, Senior Partner, BDO Lixar & Exponential Labs Chief Constable Adam Palmer, C.O.M., Vancouver Police Department Description Join us for an insightful dialogue featuring Bill Syrros, a futurist immersed in emerging technologies and Vancouver Police Chief Adam Palmer. This timely discussion will explore the profound implications of the AI revolution for society, policing, and the future of work. Drawing on his extensive expertise in emerging technologies, Bill will discuss how AI is transforming industries, reshaping economies, and impacting the way we live and work. Chief Palmer will join the conversation to provide perspective on the implications of AI for law enforcement, highlighting opportunities and challenges in leveraging AI technologies to enhance public safety and security.
14:15 – 14:25	CACP Policing Partnership Award Presenters Deputy Commissioner Kari Dart, M.O.M., Ontario Provincial Police; Co-Chair, CACP Private Sector Liaison Committee Yves Riopel, Directeur canadien sécurité' corporative, Garda World; Co-Chair, CACP Private Sector Liaison Committee
14:25 – 15:10	Network Break (Halifax Convention Centre – Exhibit Area – Convention Hall Level)
15:10 – 16:00	What We Talk About When We Talk About the Middle East Presenters

	Angus Smith Description The ten months since the Hamas attack on Israel have revealed a whole new set of threats, risks and vulnerabilities in the Middle East. This session will look at some of what's been going on, but with a particular focus on the narratives that are driving popular responses in the wider world, and what that means for policing and security.
16:00 – 16:05	Closing Remarks
18:30	Gala Reception – sponsored by Canadian Bankers Association (Halifax Convention Centre – Ballroom Salon – Ballroom Level)
19:30	Gala Banquet (Halifax Convention Centre – B1 & B2 – Ballroom Level)

TUESDAY, AUGUST 13, 2024
07:00 – 08:00	Breakfast (Halifax Convention Centre – B3 – Ballroom Level)
08:00 – 15:30	Plenary Sessions (Halifax Convention Centre – B1 & B2 – Ballroom Level)
09:00 – 13:30	Exhibit Show (Halifax Convention Centre – Convention Hall Level)
08:00 – 08:05	Opening Remarks
08:05 – 09:25	Policing Pulse: A Town Hall Discussion Facilitator Deputy Commissioner Bryan Larkin, O.O.M., Royal Canadian Mounted Police Description Back by popular demand, join us for a spirited town hall discussion that promises to provide a comprehensive overview of the latest trends, innovative initiatives, and noteworthy developments shaping policing across the country. A must-attend event for anyone seeking to stay informed and engaged in the ever-evolving landscape of policing.
09:25 – 09:55	Leveraging Technology for Public Order, Event and Incident Management Presenter Vishal Dhir, Senior Vice President, Axon Americas Description Explore how innovative technologies such as AI, drones, and cloud software are transforming public order, event, and incident management. This session will demonstrate practical applications and benefits, showcasing how police services can enhance situational awareness, streamline operations, and improve response times through these advanced tools.

09:55 – 10:40	Network Break – sponsored by OnStar General Motors (Halifax Convention Centre – Exhibit Area – Convention Hall Level)
10:40 – 10:50	Bank of Canada Award Presenter Yvonne de Lint, Deputy Managing Director, Currency Department, Bank of Canada
10:50 – 11:50	Honouring the Fallen: Enhancing Police Officer Safety and Well-being Presenter Commissioner Thomas Carrique, C.O.M., Ontario Provincial Police Description The past few years have witnessed a devastating rise in line-of-duty deaths among police officers, underscoring the critical importance of prioritizing officer safety and well-being. In this session, Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) Commissioner Tom Carrique will lead a discussion highlighting ongoing efforts to improve the safety, resilience, and overall well-being of police officers, drawing insights from the Line of Duty Death Review and associated initiatives.
11:50 – 12:00	CACP International Policing Award Presenter Chief Superintendent Elija Rain, M.O.M., Royal Canadian Mounted Police; Member, CACP International Policing Committee
12:00 – 13:30	Lunch (Halifax Convention Centre – Exhibit Area – Convention Hall Level)
13:30 – 13:40	CACP Award of Excellence for Combating Organized Crime Presenter Chief Superintendent Chris Leather, Royal Canadian Mounted Police; Member, CACP Organized Crime Committee
13:40 – 15:15	TBC
15:15 – 15:30	Closing Remarks