CACP Indigenous Policing Summit Insight to Impact: Advancing Indigenous Policing Excellence

September 20-22, 2026

This national summit will provide a platform for police leaders to strengthen operational readiness build capacity in relation to Indigenous policing. It has been 10 years since the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and over five years since the National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls. We are moving from listening and learning to action. The event will focus on equipping decision-makers with practical strategies and tools to:

- Bring police leaders and Indigenous knowledge together to enhance community safety.
- Support the role of First Nations laws and by-laws in building safer communities.
- Apply lessons from past inquiries and reports to current practices.
- Promote understanding of Indigenous traditions and governance in policing.
- Equip police to support Indigenous-led safety efforts and foster lasting, respectful relationships.
