

Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police

Supporting police professionals through innovative and inclusive police leadership to advance the safety and security of all Canadians.

MEDIA ADVISORY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 7, 2024

Canada's police leaders provide a law enforcement perspective on auto theft in Canada

OTTAWA, ONTARIO – The Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police (CACCP) will be available to speak to the media following the National Summit on Combatting Auto Theft.

- Date: Thursday, February 8, 2024
- Time: 3:15 p.m. (Eastern) – 15 minutes following the Closing Plenary of the Summit scheduled to conclude at 3:00 p.m.
- Location: Lobby of Library and Archives Canada, 395 Wellington Street, Ottawa
(Note: A CACP pop-up banner will be displayed to help you identify the specific location.)
- Purpose: To discuss the concerns, perspectives, and calls to action shared with government officials and other key stakeholders during the National Summit on Combatting Auto Theft.
- Speakers: Chief Danny Smyth, President, Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police
Chief Pierre Brochet, Vice-President of the Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police and President of the Quebec Association of Chiefs of Police

For further information or to request an interview, please contact:

Natalie Wright
Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police
Communications Manager
communications@cacp.ca
613.838.8807

Tamara Malashenko
Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police
Communications Coordinator
tamara@cacp.ca
613.595.1101, extension 106