

INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE

Committee Chairs:

Chief Charles Bordeleau, Ottawa Police Service

C/Supt. Eric Slinn, Director General, Federal and International Special Services, RCMP

Mandate

To raise police and public awareness about the impact and realities of international issues.

Accomplishments for 2014-15

- 1. Annual Report of the International Committee is a work in progress but includes reference to the following accomplishments and initiatives;*
- 2. Promoted the Executive Global Studies Program (Theme was Cybercrime). The course had 17 participants succession ready managers from various LE agencies across the country. Participants were organized into four different study groups (1. Singapore/India, 2. Germany/France/Netherlands, 3. Australia/New Zealand, 4. UK/Spain).*
- 3. Promoted the CACP International Policing Award (IPA) and reviewed 4 applications in identifying the winner of this year's award. The IPA recognizes the important contributions made by Canadian Police Services in global matters;*
- 4. Prepared a presentation for Canadian Police Chiefs to provide to Police Boards on the return on investment Canadian police deployments to foreign countries bring back to domestic policing. This 30 minute presentation features supporting data and testimonials from several police chiefs and Canadian police officers who have deployed abroad.*

Planned initiatives for 2015-16

Planned initiatives for 2015-2016 include the following:

- 1. Continuance and support of the Executive Global Studies Program and the identification of a new study theme for 2015-2016. The topic will be selected during the International Committee meeting at the CACP Annual General Meeting in Quebec City;*
- 2. Promote the International Policing award recognizing the important contributions of Canadian Police Services on Global issues;*
- 3. Organize a conference around how international issues significantly shape domestic policing responses. More precision to this theme will be discussed among International Committee members at the AGM in Quebec City;*
- 4. Roll out presentations to Police Boards and other appropriate groups on the return on investment Canadian police deployments to foreign countries bring back to domestic policing.*

Additional Information

The International Committee has been the subject of significant turn-over in membership over the course of the past year and as such participation in advancing new ideas/initiatives has been limited. Efforts will be made during the August meeting to acquaint new members with the role of the committee and identify new initiatives for 2015-2016.